Certificate of Ordination:

The Bishop handed to the Secretary the following certificate:

CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION

This certifies that I, Clare Purcell, one of the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, after a sermon preached by J. Marvin Ormond, an elder in the Church of God, in the First Methodist Church of Elizabeth City, North Carolina, on the twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, did ordain each of the following traveling preachers to the office of deacon in the Church of God, each one having been elected to that office by the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South: John Thomas Greene, Waldo Forrest Keeler, John Robert Poe, John Dee Robinson, Benjamin Franklin Meacham, William Addison Crow, Ramsey Leon Crossno, Nicholas Warnum Grant, Worth Bagley Cotton, Willis Roswell Stevens, and Leslie Wilsdon Hewett, a local preacher.

In this service J. Marvin Culbreth, an elder in the Church of God, read the Epistle.

Immediately after the ordination of deacons, assisted in the laying on of hands by J. H. Barnhardt, W. A. Cade, B. B. Slaughter, and W. V. McRae, all elders in the Church of God, I ordained each of the following traveling preachers to the office of elder in the Church of God, each one having been elected to that office by the same Annual Conference of the same church: Millard Charles Dunn, Charles Burrington Long, Marion Osborne Stephenson, Robert Edward Walston, Russell Sage Harrison, Joyce Vergil Early, Robert Nicholson Fitts, and Clyde Stewart Boggs.

In this service the Epistle was read by H. B. Porter and the Gospel by E. L. Hillman, elders in the Church of God.

On Monday morning, November 21, 1938, I ordained to the office of deacon in the Church of God Clarence Eugene Hix, Jr., he having been elected thereto by the same Annual Conference of the same church.

In this service the Epistle was read by L. C. Larkin, an elder in the Church of God.

This certifies further that on the same Monday morning I did administer the vows of the office of elder to William Burbank Penny, without the reimposition of hands, he having been received into the traveling connection of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, from the Presbyterian Church in the United States, by vote of the same North Carolina Annual Conference of the same Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Given under my hand in the City of Elizabeth City, State of North Carolina, this, the twenty-first day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, nine hundred and thirty-eight.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD

The American Bible Society, nearing a century and a quarter of uninterrupted service in distributing the Scriptures, reports through your committee the following items of progress in its task of translating and distributing the Scriptures.

TRANSLATION

An announcement being received with world-wide interest is the fact that the number of languages in which the Scriptures have been published has now passed the one thousand mark. In this achievement there has been hearty and sympathetic co-operation between the Bible societies, the Mission boards, and many individual missionaries and missionary groups. At the end of 1937 the whole Bible had been published in 179 languages, the New Testament in 213, Portions or Selections in 616 more, so that the Scriptures have been published in 1,008 languages and dialects.

DISTRIBUTION

The Society, in spite of handicaps, was able to distribute in 1937 in China and Japan more than seven and one-third million copies of the Bible, Testaments, Gospels and portions of the Gospel. In Brazil more Bibles and portions of the Bible were put in circulation than any one year since the Society began its work there more than fifty years ago. The report from other foreign fields was filled with the same encouraging note. In the United States the demands made on the Society were more than ever before, due to the fact of the emergency caused by the floods in the Ohio valley.

RESOLUTIONS

Your committee respectfully presents the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the American Bible Society is a missionary agency continually aiding the churches in extending the Kingdom of God both in the United States and in many mission fields throughout the world by translating and distributing the Bible, be it resolved:

FIRST: That Universal Bible Sunday be observed in all the churches where it is possible on December 11, and on circuits as soon thereafter as possible.

SECOND: We recommend that the same percentage of the benevolent offerings be continued as our part of the support of the American Bible Society for 1938-39.

THIRD: That the presiding elders emphasize the distribution of the Scriptures in the appointment of a committee in each church for the distribution of Christian literature.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) GEO. B. STARLING, Chairman,
W. G. FARRAR, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON BUDGET

We recommend:

1. That the appropriation for General and Conference work total $184,702.
2. That the following net amounts be deducted from the above total before division:

a. For Conference expense	$4,200.00
b. For Uniting Conference	3,324.00
Total	$7,524.00

3. That the apportionments on the balance of $177,178.00 be divided as follows:

For Conference work	50%
For General Conference work	50%

4. That after due consideration of the askings from the Conference Board, we recommend the following apportionments:

Education	$24,994.00
Missions	24,994.00
Claimants	26,000.00
Church Extension	7,000.00
Board of Lay Activities	1,000.00
Wesley Foundation	2,100.00
Student Work at Eastern Carolina Teachers College	500.00
Operating Expense, Eastern Carolina Teachers College	500.00
Louisburg College	1,500.00
(That the two items for E. C. T. C. be paid to Mrs. J. C. Wooten, Chairman, Student Committee, or to her successor.)

5. That the distributions be made to the districts for Conference work as follows:

Durham	$14,856.00
Elizabeth City	11,073.00
Fayetteville	14,019.00
New Bern	12,568.00
Raleigh	14,112.00
Rocky Mount	13,960.00
Wilmington	11,763.00
	$92,351.00

6. That the distribution made to the districts for General Conference be the same as for Conference work.

7. That the percentages for distribution for the various causes for Conference work be:

Education	28.70%
Missions	28.70%
Claimants	29.85%
Church Extension	8.04%
Lay Activities	1.15%
Wesley Foundation	2.41%
Student Work and Operation Expense for E. C. T. C.	1.15%
	100.00%

8. That the following items be preferred claims:

a. Conference Expense	$2,000.00
b. Statistical Secretary	200.00
c. Conference Minutes	1,400.00
d. Conference Treasurer's Secretary	600.00
e. Louisburg College	1,500.00
	$5,700.00

9. We recommend the reelection of Mr. C. A. Dillon for Conference Treasurer, and that the Conference authorize the Commission on Budget to elect a Treasurer during this quadrennium whenever a vacancy occurs ad interim.

10. It is further recommended that the bond of the Conference Treasurer, to the amount of $50,000 and the Treasurer of each board be renewed in blanket form as has been required in previous years, the Treasurer of each board to pay its pro rata share of the cost. The blanket bond is to be kept by the Secretary of the commission in the vault of the Treasurer of Duke University.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) JOHN F. BRUTON, Chairman,
F. S. ALDRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

I. THE LOCAL CHURCH

At the close of the quadrennium your Board of Christian Education is glad to report to the Conference that there seems to be an encouraging advance in every phase of our program. Statistics indicate a tangible increase; even more significant is the increasing interest in the total program of Christian Education on the part of all our people. There is still the necessity of intensive promotion of this work to reach churches that are not yet sharing in the full program; but we believe that with the interest already evidenced and with an enlarged staff for carrying on the work, progress during the next years should be significant.

In detail we would report the following increases for the year:

1. Increase in church school enrollment.
2. Increase in offerings to the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.
3. Increase in churches contributing to the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise.
4. Increase in Church School Day offerings.
5. Increase in churches contributing to Church School Day.
6. Increase in churches providing leadership training.
7. Increase in attendance upon Young People's Assembly.
8. Increase in churches observing Childhood and Youth Week.
9. Increase in number and quality of Vacation Church Schools.

We would express our gratitude to a number of groups that have made possible that which has been accomplished this year and the other years of the quadrennium. The General Board of Christian Education has assisted by wise leadership from the general office and by personal counselling in our local areas in making our program effective throughout the Conference. Our presiding elders, with their district staffs, have been of untold help in leading the work in their respective districts. Duke University has continued to furnish office facilities for our staff and has also, through the Duke Foundation, furnished us several young men each summer to assist in our work in the rural churches. Our institutions of higher learning have continued the fine work that they have carried on over a period of years. Above all, we would express our gratitude to the North Carolina Conference for the splendid co-operation given to your board throughout the quadrennium. It is this support of the Conference as a whole as well as of its individual members that has been the greatest contributing factor in whatever results may have been achieved.

II. SCHOOL AND COLLEGE SECTION

As we review the period of the past quadrennium, the board expresses gratification for the progress made by our various educational institutions. We are happy to report that the number of students has made steady increases, and a more effective program of education in Christian citizenship has been consistently advanced.

LOUISBURG COLLEGE

Louisburg College has made outstanding progress along all lines—scholastically and financially—and is undoubtedly meeting a peculiar need in Christian endeavor. The report presented was most encouraging and hopeful. There has been a steady decrease in the amount of indebtedness and a great increase in the student body. The total enrollment has increased from 351 last year to 425 at the present time. The self-help plan is working very effectively.

GREENSBORO COLLEGE

We are happy to note a continued increase in the enrollment of students in Greensboro College, the enrollment now being 393. A great deal of improvement has been made in the physical equipment. We congratulate the college upon its splendid success in its entire program.

DUKE UNIVERSITY

The outstanding feature of Duke University this year is its great centennial program. The student body is composed of representatives from nearly every part of the world. The number of students for the academic year, 1937-38, was 3,493. The number of students for the summer school in 1937 was 2,638. There are 389 officers and teachers, not including assistants. The present endowment is $34,795,099.85. The plant and equipment are valued at $27,445,077.78. The University has twenty-eight loan funds valued at $1,834,379.11, scholarship funds valued at $282,021.43, and miscellaneous special funds valued at $266,514.74.

SCARRITT COLLEGE

In view of the unification of Methodism, Scarritt College faces a new era, with greater responsibilities and greater opportunities. Your board is grateful for the work being done by this institution. We recommend that the Board of Christian Education, through its Executive Secretary, co-operate in the matter of securing Scarritt associates for the college.

PASTORS' SCHOOL

The 1938 session of the North Carolina Pastors' School gave a very beneficial program. General approval was expressed at the change from a two-week to a one-week session. The Institute for Rural Ministers also was successful.

(Signed) H. E. SPENCE, President,
J. G. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

In keeping with the Conference action of last year, we recommend that there be employed a Public Relations Secretary for Louisburg College, to work principally at the task of handling the debt situation. We recommend that he be paid a salary of $3,000, to be paid by the Conference Treasurer, with house rent and traveling expenses to be paid by the college, with the understanding that both the Conference Treasurer and the college be reimbursed one-half of money paid out, from funds collected by the Public Relations Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) H. E. SPENCE, President,
J. G. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 3—BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Your new Board of Christian Education suggests the following for special emphasis during the year before us:

1. A continuation of the emphasis on church school enrollment.
2. A hearty participation in the Youth Crusade.
3. A wider participation in the Church School Day activity.

I. APPOINTMENTS

We recommend the following appointments:

Professors in Duke University—H. E. Spence, J. M. Ormond, H. E. Myers, F. S. Hickman.

President of Louisburg College—D. E. Earnhardt.

President of Scarritt College for Christian Workers—J. L. Cuninggim.

Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage—C. K. Proctor.

General Board of Christian Education, Assistant Director of Leadership Training—M. E. Cunningham.

Student in Duke University—James H. Overton, Jr.

We recommend the confirmation of the following persons as members of the Board of Managers of the Pastors' School: R. W. Bradshaw to succeed himself, and T. M. Grant to succeed E. C. Few.

We recommend the election and confirmation of G. T. Adams to be a Trustee of Greensboro College, his present term expiring December 31, 1938.

We recommend the election and confirmation of Col. J. W. Jenkins as a Trustee of Louisburg College.

We recommend the confirmation and appointment of R. W. Bradshaw as Conference Secretary of Christian Education, and Director of Young People's Work, at a salary of $3,000, with an allowance of $300 for house rent.

We recommend the appointment of Floyd M. Patterson as Extension Secretary, at a salary of $1,500.

We are glad to announce the continuing services of the other members of our Conference staff: Miss Alma Cade as Director of Children's Work at a salary of $1,200, and Mrs. F. M. Patterson at a salary of $1,200. Mrs. Patterson's work is that of Office Secretary and Associate Director of Young People's Work.

We announce the names of J. A. Russell and M. W. Lawrence to serve with the Executive Secretary, R. W. Bradshaw, as members of the Rural Work Commission.

The Financial Statement of our Treasurer, C. K. Proctor, and the certificate of audit of same by K. W. Parham, C.P.A., are appended hereto.

II.

We present the following resolution regarding Greensboro College:

WHEREAS, this Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference at their 1933 sessions recommended a merger of Davenport College and Greensboro College upon certain terms and conditions set out in detail in Report No. 3 of the Board of Christian Education of this Conference at its session for the year 1933; and, WHEREAS, difficulties arose and said merger has not been consummated; and, WHEREAS, the merger is still desirable and may now be obtained, but upon slight modification of terms and conditions.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be it resolved:

1. That any action heretofore taken by this Conference inconsistent with this resolution be rescinded.

2. That the Trustees of Greensboro College be authorized and directed to merge Greensboro College with Davenport College with such name and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the Boards of Trustees of each of said institutions; and take such legal steps as may be necessary to accomplish this end.

III.

We present the following resolution to the Conference: "Be it resolved that the Board of Christian Education place the monies now on hand in the Student Loan Fund, in the keeping of our schools as follows: $1,000 at Greensboro College, $1,000 at Louisburg College, and the remainder to be added to the $1,000 which has already been placed at Duke University. These funds shall be known, at the three schools, as 'The North Carolina Conference Board of Christian Education Loan Fund.' It will be understood that there will be transmitted to each school the regulations to direct the fund, stating specifically that the funds are to be loaned only to ministerial students, or to those preparing for some other distinctive type of Christian service as a vocation. Each school will be expected to give an accounting of this fund in its annual report to the Board of Christian Education."

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) H. E. SPENCE, President,
J. G. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Your board submits the following report:

The Board of Church Extension of your Conference pleads for an increase in the apportionment to this cause. Every year there are many urgent calls from needy churches which deserve our most sympathetic consideration. The only possible way Methodism can achieve a victorious ministry is for these handicapped churches to be relieved by the strong arm of our connectional boards.

For the past several years the apportionment to this cause has been reduced until our funds are inadequate. We cannot afford to destroy our virility as a great evangelical force by neglecting these churches. The Methodist Church has always preached the Gospel to the poor, but we are not meeting the vast opportunities for extending the field of our service to our less fortunate brethren. Unless the church lays this situation earnestly to heart, the Board of Church Extension will be utterly unable to carry forward its work.

It is apparent to every thoughtful pastor that many of our charges do not have comfortable parsonages, and many church buildings are inadequate. It is obvious that the cause of Methodism can not be stabilized until every pastor has a comfortable home, and houses of worship suited for the proclamation of the Gospel.

The apportionment for 1937 was $7,000 and the percentage was 8.55 per cent. Your board received from this apportionment the amount of $3,633.75 for distribution during the year now closing.

DUKE FUND COMMISSION

We are grateful to the Duke Fund Commission for substantially aiding our church building enterprises. They have made appropriations as follows:

Church Building Fund:

Number of appropriations	26
Amount appropriated	$30,010.00

Church Maintenance Fund:

Number of appropriations	144

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

With the ever increasing cheapness of modern literature which floods the public mind, it is highly important that our church take some definite action in this matter.

There is a positive need to combat the morals-destructive effect of much of the lurid descriptions of crime now daily spread before the youth of North Carolina. Furthermore, the influence of the present Federal Government and that of several counties in the state is toward the increase of alcoholic sales for beverage, something which results in the perversion of the mind toward immoral thought and crime.

It is the opinion of your Board of Christian Literature that an obligation rests on each member of this Annual Conference to increase among the young people the habit of reading wholesome literature, and that the obligation should be regarded as personal for each member. Inasmuch as the literature now read by preference by those out of school is that which is currently offered, this Annual Conference should advocate current literature in the form of weekly religious papers and magazines, particularly the North Carolina Christian Advocate, the Nashville Advocate, the World Outlook, the Upper Room together with other good Cokesbury literature.

A more definite word concerning our own church organ. With our resources and our present standing in the family of Advocates, the North Carolina Christian Advocate ought to continue to lead. To do this the pastors and the leading laymen must become a unit in extending the circulation and securing better financial support for the Christian Advocate. The Advocate should be on equality with other interests of the church as its chief business is to promote all these interests. The following goals are suggested for this year:

1. Let the North Carolina Christian Advocate receive the same attention as the benevolences in each district and in every church so that the church paper may become a major concern and a more potential agency in our Methodist conquest.

2. Let each pastor be charged with the work of doubling the number of annual subscribers in his charge.

We urge our ministers to make a special effort to secure new subscriptions, not merely for the sake of having large numbers, but in order that our people might keep themselves informed on those matters which are spiritual and of church-wide interest.

Only an unusual effort will enable us to meet the church paper issue with the union of Methodism. So we would make this year of union an epochal year for the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

We recommend that H. C. Smith succeed himself as a member of the Board of Publication. We also request the Bishop to re-appoint M. T. Plyler as Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
ALLEN P. BRANTLEY, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF FINANCE

Add to the plan for the MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND as printed in the Conference Journal of 1937 the following sentence to paragraph four on page 77:

"Provided, however, if any member of the Conference fails to contribute 1% of his salary for more than a total of three Conference years, consecutive or otherwise, he shall have no claim upon this fund beyond the actual amount such a member has paid to the fund."

The paragraph then to read as follows:

"Upon superannuation of any member who has failed any year or any number of years to contribute 1% of his salary, there shall be deducted from his benefit an amount equal to twice that amount he should have paid during the year or years he did not contribute. Provided, however, if any member of the Conference fails to contribute 1% of his salary for more than a total of three years, consecutive or otherwise, he shall have no claim upon this fund beyond the actual amount such a member has paid to the fund."

Add to the plan for the MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND as printed in the Conference Journal of 1937 the following paragraph:

"Each year within ten days of the adjournment of the Annual Conference the Financial Secretary shall deliver his books and records to the Board of Finance for examination and audit."

Let the above paragraph be inserted following the present paragraph on the duties of the Financial Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. A. STATON, Chairman,
L. T. SINGLETON, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF FINANCE

It is with a feeling of regret that we have to make a reduction in the amount paid per year's service. The receipts for this year permit of only $5.60 per year's service for superannuates and $3.70 for widows. This is a reduction of twenty-five cents (25c) for superannuates and twenty cents (20c) for widows.

This condition is a matter of deep concern to us, and we sincerely hope that something can be done to provide a more adequate support for our superannuates and the widows of our departed brethren.

The following claimants have died during the year:

Mrs. J. A. Lee, Mrs. H. B. Anderson, Rev. J. H. Frizzelle, Rev. C. M. Hawkins, Rev. A. J. Parker, and Mrs. R. F. Taylor.

We nominate Rev. W. L. Clegg for Financial Secretary of the Ministers'

Retirement Fund for the ensuing year, and Rev. T. M. Grant as Director of Superannuate Endowment.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) J. A. STATON, Chairman,
C. E. JORDAN, Treasurer,
L. T. SINGLETON, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 1—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We, the Board of Lay Activities of the North Carolina Conference, beg to present the following report:

We do not feel that we have accomplished even this year all that we wish we might have accomplished. We do have a feeling that the laymen are more and more finding themselves in "Lay Activities" and each year make some progress towards the goal that has been set up and is kept constantly before us. We have made definite plans for the coming year and earnestly solicit the co-operation of everybody in any way involved in all the causes this board is set to serve.

Co-operation is an idea whose hour is come, and progress without co-operation becomes more difficult if not impossible. Let us all more than ever move forward this year in these causes which we all alike have equally at heart.

We make the following recommendations that shall constitute the program of objectives for the coming year:

1. That the Annual Conference accept the General Conference askings for General work; that an equal amount be apportioned for Conference work; and that the goal for 1938-1939 be the payment of one-half of the benevolences by the time of the meeting of the District Conference and the full payment of benevolences at least one month preceding the meeting of the Annual Conference.
2. That each charge adopt an adequate financial system, including the "Every-member Canvass," weekly payment of pledges, and monthly settlement of all financial obligations.
3. That a course for the training of the official board be given in each church and that the pastor or some qualified layman teach the course, using as the basic text Morelock's A Steward in the Methodist Church.
4. That the Director for the Golden Cross in each local church be appointed immediately after the opening of the new Conference year; and that the goal for the coming year be the enrollment of at least 1,000 members in each district of the Conference.
5. That the District League of Stewards hold its first meeting as soon as practicable after the Annual Conference, and that the program of the meeting be focused upon the ways and means of accomplishing, in each district, the objectives of the Conference Board of Lay Activities.
6. That, during the coming year, we strive to put the North Carolina Christian Advocate in the home of every Methodist steward, and that we ask the Lay Leader of each charge to assume this task as his definite responsibility.
7. That we continue to give our unqualified endorsement and whole-hearted support to the Conference program for the Methodist Orphanage.
8. That the mid-year meeting of the Conference Board of Lay Activities be held in conjunction with the Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska in August, 1938.
9. That Laymen's Day be observed in every charge of the Conference on the third Sunday in May, 1939, or as near thereto as practicable, and that the topic—"Adequate Support of the Ministry"—be the subject for discussion on that day.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) W. P. FEW, Chairman,
F. S. ALDRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Conference Board of Lay Activities nominates Dr. W. P. Few as Conference Lay Leader for the year 1938-1939, Dr. W. K. Greene as Associate Lay Leader, F. S. Aldridge as Secretary, and for the Executive Committee, the officers of the board, along with B. W. Oneal and F. E. Parrott.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) W. P. FEW, Chairman,
F. S. ALDRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT NO. 3—BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We again call attention to the increase in the legalized sale of liquor in North Carolina, with the accompanying increase this legalized sale stimulates in illegal sale as well, the continued increase in drunken driving, and the ever-mounting loss of life on our highways. It becomes increasingly evident that when the friends of liquor use the term "alcohol control" they really mean control of the counties and state by alcohol. We remind the public again of all their promises to keep liquor out of territory legally dry. We call attention to so-called "legal" rulings by which the laws against transportation of liquor into dry counties have been nullified. We also call attention to facts recently brought out by the grand jury of a county that now and then flaunts the disgraceful boast of having the largest sales of liquor in North Carolina, as follows:

The law "enforcement" authorities paid $4,688.65 to special detectives to round up liquor violators. Wide publicity was given to the arrest of more than 115 bootleggers in a county that had been promised bootlegging would stop when the county opened its own grog-shops. $1,250.00 was then paid to an attorney to prosecute those arrested, although the county had an able and competent public prosecutor. A few light road sentences, many of them suspended at time of judgment or later, and $1,725.00 in fines were the only punishment assessed. More than 25% of that amount remained unpaid six months later. In the same county, case after case shows defendants who have had sentences suspended on good behavior being again arrested, again convicted, and again having sentence suspended.

We call attention to these facts presented by the grand jury of this one liquor county as clearly indicating the following:

A. Publicity as to law enforcement under the A. B. C. Stores is frequently all out of proportion to the facts. The friends of liquor have hoodwinked many honest voters into believing that attempted enforcement will be made or is being made. They keep up the ballyhoo, but enforcement is "quite mild."

B. Round-up of bootleggers periodically made by the so-called enforcement forces completely disproves the promise of the A. B. C. Store advocates that they would eliminate illegal sales of liquor, instead of increasing such sales.

C. So long as the public is not informed of the final disposition of liquor cases, it is easily deceived by apparent severity while the liquor forces are enjoying impunity.

D. Officers of the law are discouraged from making arrests even in clear cases, since they come to feel the uselessness of their efforts. We doubt not the failure of the so-called enforcement authorities to enforce the laws the liquor forces have wheedled from the voters under the name of control will in time be used by the same liquor forces to obtain laws still more favorable to liquor.

We further call attention to our members of the action of liquor boards in placing stores in communities violently opposed to them, for example: Morrisville, Wake County—in order to increase sales and profits.

We earnestly repeat as our declaration of conviction:

1. Total abstinence is the right method the individual has for dealing with alcohol.

2. The only safe and ultimate method for the state is the legal prohibition of manufacture and sale.

3. It is fundamentally wrong for an individual, or a nation, to make traffic of human vice and wretchedness. We believe that it is un-Christian for a community, a state, or a nation to seek profit through taxation or license fees from the debauchery of its citizens. We urgently recommend, therefore, that every layman of our church take definite stand against the manufacture and sale of intoxicants and that he spare no effort in promoting the movements for the protection of the individual and society from the social, economic, and moral waste of any traffic in intoxicants and habit-forming drugs.

4. We most earnestly remonstrate against any of our members seeking to share in the profits of debauchery through such actions as accepting advertisements in newspapers or other properties they may own, renting property for use as a place of sale, aiding the beer-wine-liquor traffic through accepting fees as attorneys or lobbyists, selling or aiding in the sale of intoxicants, or in any other ways aiding and abetting in the campaign of liquor to increase the number of drunkards and criminals in our midst.

5. We earnestly request our pastors not to nominate or appoint any person to any position in the church who is in any way connected with the liquor traffic.

(Signed) W. P. FEW, Chairman,

F. S. ALDRIDGE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Your Board of Missions now closing a quadrennium of service to the North Carolina Conference is glad to report progress during the past year, and to thank the Conference for splendid co-operation. We have prosecuted our work under the assumption that the spirit of missions is at the heart of the Christian church.

GENERAL MISSIONARY COUNCIL

The General Missionary Council will meet in San Antonio, Texas, January 3-6. The union of three great Methodist bodies in America will be the subject of major emphasis at this Conference.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTES

The Conference Missionary Institutes will be scheduled following the meeting of the Council. The dates for these institutes will be properly announced and we hope they will be largely attended and that they may contribute much to the success of our work during the coming year.

MID-YEAR CONFERENCE

The Conference Missionary Secretary has been asked by your board to arrange for a Mid-year Missionary Conference at a central place in the bounds of the Conference and we are urging all leaders of our church to give attention and support to this Mid-year Missionary Conference.

EVANGELISM

The General Conference at Birmingham created a Department of Evangelism in the Board of Missions. Dr. Harry Denman has been elected Secretary of the New Department. The Annual Conference is expected to co-operate and to provide a Conference Evangelism Committee. Your Board of Missions recommends the following persons as members of this committee: G. W. Perry, E. D. Weathers, J. A. Russell, A. S. Parker, Leon Russell, D. A. Clarke, and F. S. Love.

RURAL WORK COMMISSION

The General Conference last May enacted legislation providing for a General Rural Work Commission and Annual Conference Rural Work Commissions for the purpose of unifying the services rendered in rural churches by the several General and Conference agencies, and to prosecute the rural work more vigorously and constructively. Your Board of Missions is glad to co-operate with other Conference agencies in setting up the Conference Commission, and plans to give unstinted support to the important work that is proposed. In addition to the Conference Missionary Secretary, who is ex-officio member of the Conference

Rural Work Commission, J. C. Williams and J. M. Ormond will represent the Board of Missions on the Rural Commission.

We recommend the appointment of F. S. Love as Conference Missionary Secretary, and F. S. Aldridge as Conference Golden Cross Director.

We nominate M. T. Plyler to succeed himself as a member of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School.

REPORT OF THE ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE

The Orphanage Committee is happy to report that the morale of the institution is exceptionally good. The Orphanage continues to operate upon a policy that is practical and far-reaching in its service to homeless children.

For thirty-nine years the Orphanage has provided a home, education, and training for orphans within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference. This service should endear this home to our hearts and cause us to make it one of our chief responsibilities in the work of the Christian ministry. It would be impossible to estimate the value of the Methodist Orphanage or its Christian influence upon mankind. It has saved, rescued, given new life and hope to hundreds of boys and girls in the course of its years of service. They have been made better men and women for having had the Methodist Orphanage as their home.

The cry of the orphan continues to be heard. These children are begging and pleading for homes. There have been more applications for the admission of children during the past Conference year than during any other year of its Christian service to mankind. It has been impossible to answer all of the calls; hence, only a small per cent of the applicants have been admitted. This fact should arouse within us the desire to make it possible for the admission of more children. At the present there are 310 children enrolled.

The spiritual life of the children of the Orphanage is given careful consideration and attention by those in authority. We find that all of the children attend church school and church services every Sunday morning. The smaller children attend church with the Junior congregation and the older children worship with the adult congregation at Edenton Street Church. There are two well organized Epworth Leagues in the Home. These Leagues take care of the Senior and Intermediate young people. It gives us great pleasure to report that all members of the official staff of the Orphanage are members of the church, and that all the children above six or seven years of age are members of the church also.

The buildings of the Orphanage are in splendid condition, and we find that in many of them new equipment has been placed. All of the buildings are well insured; much attention being given to this important item. Last year all of the buildings were repaired and painted exteriorly, and this Conference year all of them have been renovated and improved interiorly at approximately the cost of $8,000. This places the buildings in the fore-front and their very appearance inside and out is cause for thankfulness on the part of all of us. The grounds are beautifully kept and a wonderful piece of property presents itself to the North Carolina Conference and to the passerby.

The beautiful Burwell Memorial Cottage was dedicated on February 6 of this year. Twenty-two of the oldest girls live in the Cottage and are privileged to enjoy its comfort, its beauty, and its inspiration. Mrs. G. G. Allen erected the Burwell Cottage at the cost of $30,000 and furnished it elegantly throughout at a cost of several thousand dollars. We should ever be grateful to Mrs. Allen for her generosity and a great warm heart for the orphan child.

In the early part of this year Mrs. J. C. Fuller, of Lumberton, erected a beautiful gateway at the entrance of the Orphanage campus in memory of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Best, of Goldsboro. The memorial gateway has added much to the beautiful approach to the lovely grounds of the Orphanage.

The great need of the Orphanage is for a balanced budget to meet operating expenses, necessary repairs, and improvements from year to year. It is to be deplored that during the past summer and fall the Orphanage has had to borrow $12,500 with which to pay its bills. Approximately $28,000 in Specials is needed to balance the budget yearly. The Orphanage has continued to put forth every possible effort to raise Specials through the churches, Sunday schools, during Thanksgiving, on fifth Sundays, and in fact, all through the year. We find that many of the charges apply the specials on their 10 per cent apportionment, which deals a staggering blow to the Orphanage finances. Until a few years ago, we asked all of the church schools that could afford to do so to give the Orphanage a monthly offering, and this proved to be a fruitful source of income. At the urgent request of the Board of Christian Education, the Orphanage discontinued this asking, and in turn asked the churches and church schools to give fifth Sunday offerings. So far the plan has not been very satisfactory. It is sincerely hoped that next year all the church schools will give their enthusiastic co-operation and make the fifth Sunday offering a glowing success. We wish to make the following recommendations:

That we disabuse the minds of the majority of our pastors and our constituency of the false impression that largely obtains throughout the North Carolina Conference that the Methodist Orphanage is largely endowed, and that with the Duke Fund we are well provided for from a financial standpoint. Because so many have this opinion of the Orphanage, it is very difficult to impress our preachers and church members with the fact that the Orphanage needs a great deal more money to give it a balanced budget.

That we ask all the church schools to designate each fifth Sunday in the year as Orphanage Day, and that the offering received on fifth Sundays be sent to the Orphanage as a Special.

That the Conference ask for an appropriation of an amount equal to 10 per cent of the pastors' salaries.

That we urge all the churches and church schools to take a free-will offering in each church and church school during the Thanksgiving season, or during the Christmas holidays. That the funds secured be sent to the Orphanage as Specials and not to be applied on the 10 per cent Orphanage apportionment.

That the months of January, February, and March be designated as Orphanage months for the raising of the entire Orphanage apportionment for the Conference year.

That we urge our Methodist constituency to remember the Orphanage by will so that the small endowment will be greatly increased. That we also urge elderly people, who are in position to do so, to secure Methodist Orphanage Annuity Bonds, which pay a good rate of interest. This method is recommended to people to provide for their needs in declining years, and at the same time prove benefactors to the Orphanage.

That we recommend to any one who is in a position to do so the erection of a gymnasium for the physical training of the boys and girls of the Orphanage.

W. C. Chadwick having been nominated by the Board of Trustees to succeed B. B. Adams, deceased, and John W. Evans, to succeed Dr. J. W. McGee, deceased, we recommend their election by the Conference.

Unless the Conference devises ways and means by which we can increase the Orphanage budget, it will be forced to reduce its population from 310 to at least 275. To do this would work a terrible hardship on the children to return to the communities from which they came. It would also shut the door of the home in the face of hundreds of homeless and uncared for children.

We are happy to recommend the re-appointment of the Rev. A. S. Barnes as Superintendent of the Methodist Orphanage.

Western North Carolina Conference	40
Ministerial Students	51
Other Conferences and denominations	14

Total number of credits 159

Members of the Board of Managers whose terms expire:

North Carolina Conference: M. T. Plyler, R. W. Bradshaw, and E. C. Few.

Western North Carolina Conference: E. K. McLarty, W. A. Kale, and W. W.

Peele.

Many persons attending the North Carolina Pastors' School were enrolled in a non-credit course taught by Dr. Edwin Mims and also attended several non-credit courses offered in the Rural Church Institute. Would like also to call attention to the fact that the 1938 session of the Pastors' School was conducted in six days. This shortened session seemed to meet the universal approval of the university administration and the preachers in attendance.

The report of the Treasurer is attached.

REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE ON COLLEGE PLACE METHODIST CHURCH TO THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

In consideration of the large Methodist enrollment of students in the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, with all that such enrollment imposes in responsibility and privilege upon College Place Methodist Church, the Joint Committee on College Place Church requests the two North Carolina Annual Conferences to consider and approve the following recommendations:

(1) That the two Annual Conferences undertake to raise the sum of fifty thousand dollars, first, to pay off the indebtedness of twenty-three thousand dollars which is now on College Place Church, and, thereafter, to make additional improvements to the present facilities, which are now greatly congested, with the provision that no debt is to be incurred on College Place Church during the proposed enlargement of the facilities.

(2) That the pastor of College Place Church and his assistant be given the opportunity to solicit funds for this purpose throughout both Annual Conferences, and that all our pastors be urged to render every possible aid in the securing of this fund.

(3) That the Boards of Missions in each Annual Conference make appropriations to the salary of an assistant pastor at College Place Church, for the period of one year, seven hundred dollars by the Western North Carolina Annual Conference and five hundred dollars by the North Carolina Annual Conference.

(4) That both Annual Conferences join College Place Church in urging from the General Board of Church Extension a donation of ten thousand dollars to be used in cancelling the present indebtedness and in the enlargement of the plant.

(5) That each annual Conference appoint a committee of three persons to work with a local committee of three persons from College Place Church in carrying out the above recommendations.

THE METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT AT CHAPEL HILL AND COLLEGE PLACE CHURCH

With 700 Methodist students at Chapel Hill and 650 at W. C., U. N. C., Greensboro, the programs at the two places run sharply parallel.

Church attendance at both places averages better than 200 each Sunday. Membership in the church school is larger at College Place than at Chapel Hill, with 355 enrolled at the former and 75 at the latter. College Place has been compelled to give up its largest class room to students, and that is inadequate.

Worship conducted by students is stressed at both places, with surprisingly gratifying participation by students. College Place has its Wesley Players, having connection with the National Society of that name. Four plays a year, repeated in outlying churches on invitation, are undertaken by the Players. A social of some kind each month, a Wednesday afternoon "Friendly," special musical programs and "teas and dinners" are popular at College Place.

Chapel Hill features a Forum each week, at which Religion, economics, social questions, personal problems, religious and moral aspects of political trends, alcohol, and other live questions are discussed under the guidance of professors, pastors, student leaders and invited speakers.

Both programs stress visiting among students, Chapel Hill reporting 1,000 visits to students and College Place special care for shut-ins and needy children in the community.

Posters and monthly bulletins are issued by both organizations to an increasingly extended constituency.

In both cases a special student worker is required. It is entirely obvious that the expense of the work is considerable, and must be met by liberal appropriations by the two Annual Conferences.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. STANBURY, Vice-Chairman,
J. M. CULBRETH, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON METHODIST
CO-OPERATION

To the Constituent Bodies represented by the Commission on Methodist Co-operation, Greeting:

The Commission met in annual session in the office of the Editor of the Christian Advocate, Greensboro, on Thursday, September 29, with representatives of the three Methodist bodies in North Carolina present. After full deliberation, the Commission directed that the following report should be sent to the four Annual Conferences involved:

With the assured coming of Methodist Union within the next year, the purpose and work of the Commission on Methodist Co-operation draws to a close. That the work of the Commission has been fruitful in a closer fellowship and co-operation between the groups represented none will deny. Because of the work of the Commission the task of uniting the three Methodisms into one in this state will be made much easier. Looking toward that union we wish to review our work of the year, and to make some suggestions for the year ahead.

Approximating the date of John Wesley's heartwarming experience, May 24, three central celebrations were held under the direction of the Commission; namely, at Asheville, Charlotte and Greensboro. Speakers representing the three branches of Methodism were on the program at each place. While the attendance was not large, it was representative, and a fine feeling of fellowship prevailed. Following these meetings a number of group meetings were held in various parts of the state, wherever two or more of the denominational units were in contact. These, too, were fruitful in a better understanding of our common Methodism. Under the direction of Bishop Paul B. Kern, a number of Aldersgate celebrations were held in centers not reached by the meetings held under the direction of the Commission. Wherever possible, speakers from the other two Methodisms had part on the programs, a gesture which we greatly appreciate.

Now, as we look forward to the new year, which will probably be the last in the separate existence of these three groups, there are certain suggestions which we would like to present to the Conferences for their consideration:

1. We suggest the holding of one or more, perhaps several, mass meetings as soon as possible following the holding of the Uniting Conference; in which the work of that Conference might be reviewed, and all possible emphasis put upon the fact that we are actually one, awaiting only the working out of details to put that oneness into effect. If the Conferences approve this suggestion, the Commission will set up and direct the machinery necessary to carry it out.

2. The Commission would like your approval also of the suggestion that two fact-finding Committees, geographically located and composed of two representatives from each of the three Methodisms, be set up to make a survey of all the territory where two or more of the groups have contact, the survey to ascertain the number of churches involved, their possible realignment, and such other facts as may be needed to relate the several churches or charges to the new program. This information to be made available to those who shall be responsible for co-ordinating the work of the now three Methodisms. If the suggestion is approved, the Commission has directed the Chairman and Secretary to name the personnel of the Committees.

3. Since no Plan of Union, however perfect, can really succeed unless there is also a spiritual unity, we think all possible effort ought to be made by this Commission during the year to bring the groups together in District Conferences, in worship and revival services, in young people's gatherings and in pastors' assemblies. We need desperately to get acquainted. When we know each other we shall love each other; and love will cast out any possible fear or misunderstanding.

We are hoping literature may be made available following the Uniting Conference that will emphasize our common task, and the fact and spirit of oneness. If this can be put into the hands of all our people before the three groups are merged, it will do much to further the success of union.

The Commission stands ready to help in any possible way the effort to bring our groups together; and is at the service of any and all agencies which may be charged with that task.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
C. W. BATES, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS' SALARIES

At the 1934 session of the Conference a committee, composed of J. M. Ormond, D. M. Sharpe, D. E. Earnhardt, E. C. Crawford, and W. L. Clegg, was appointed to study the question of salaries of ministers. At the 1935 Conference, this committee presented a resolution providing that those ministers who receive salaries of $1,500 or more share a graduated percentage of salary with those ministers whose salaries were below $1,500. This resolution was adopted, but not to take effect until after the Conference of 1936. At the 1935 Conference a new committee was appointed, consisting of J. M. Ormond, H. B. Porter, L. C. Larkin, J. C. Williams, and I. T. Poole, to study further the questions of salaries and to recommend a plan of procedure for putting into effect the enactment of the Conference of 1935. This committee during the year of 1936 mailed a letter to each minister calling attention to the provisions of the 1935 resolution and asked for suggestions as to how this resolution could be put into effect. From the replies to the letter sent out, your committee felt that it was unwise at that time to attempt to put into force all the provisions of the original resolution, and offered to the Conference of 1936 a modification of the plan. This brought about quite a bit of discussion and the matter finally terminated by the report of the committee being held in abeyance and the committee continued. No report was made at the 1937 Conference, but the committee still appears in the Conference Journal.

Your committee therefore recommends that in view of the fact that the Conference of 1937 set up the Ministers' Retirement Fund, the matter be dropped for the time being and the committee be discontinued.

H. B. PORTER,
L. C. LARKIN,

Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE FOR SUGGESTIONS FOR THE REARRANGEMENT OF CHARGES IN THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

The members of this committee feel that the Rural Work Commission provided for by legislation of the recent General Conference, and now being established in the North Carolina Conference, should assume the obligations committed to our group.

We hereby request that this committee be given honorable discharge.

(Signed) J. M. ORMOND, Chairman,
CARLOS P. WOMACK, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE LIQUOR EVIL

The presiding elders, having been constituted by the Annual Conference of 1937 a committee to suggest a constructive policy in regard to the liquor evil, beg leave to submit the following:

WHEREAS, the church is an institution of God which, in obedience to God's holy nature, must oppose evil in every form or else forfeit the right to be called His church; and,

WHEREAS, the church's unique place in civilization requires it to deal with the liquor evil (as well as with every other evil) in a unique manner, we insist that the church must continue to work for total abstinence rather than content itself with encouraging or promoting any policy designed merely to secure moderation; for the principle of moderation involves risks and sins to the individual and to society which are inconsistent with the Christian doctrines of love for God and love for man.

THEREFORE, be it resolved:

1. That all the preachers be urged and encouraged to preach with vigor and persistency against the evils of alcoholic liquors. In order to preach effectively in this manner it will be necessary for the church to make a double confession: a confession of confusion and a confession of guilt—confusion in regard to ways and means of handling the liquor question and guilt in permitting its members to be drawn into the system of so-called liquor control.

2. That the church through its educational agencies take up at once with earnestness and consistency the work of teaching our children and youth the evils of intoxicating beverages.

3. That all the preachers be urged and assisted in co-operating with the public school system in effectively implementing the law requiring the evils of alcohol to be taught the children of the public schools.

4. That we determine and covenant together as ministers of the Gospel and as laymen devoted to the Kingdom of God to do all in our power to discourage the use of alcoholic beverages in the homes of our people.

5. We reaffirm the historic and present position of our church that the liquor traffic is an inescapable and deadly evil in any form. Our members, and especially our local church and Conference officials, should have neither legal nor economic relation to it or give sanction to it. (§ 655 of Discipline.)

We purpose to stand unitedly and solidly behind our preachers and laymen who stand by our Discipline and who do not compromise the historic position of our church regarding the liquor evil.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING CONFERENCE
QUARTETTE

WHEREAS, special music is a great inspiration to the sessions of our Annual Conference, and,

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Conference did once have a Conference Quartette composed of Rev. A. J. Parker, Rev. C. E. Vale, Rev. J. H. Frizzelle, and Mr. R. G. Phillips, and,

WHEREAS, the last two members of this quartette, the Rev. J. H. Frizzelle, and the Rev. A. J. Parker, have died during this Conference year, and have joined their ascended brethren of this quartette;

THEREFORE, be it resolved: That we, the members of this Conference, express our desire that another Conference Quartette be formed, and recognized as the official quartette of the Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

RESOLUTION CONCERNING TIME OF MEETING OF OUR CONFERENCE

To the President, North Carolina Annual Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and to The College of Bishops, Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Greetings:

The North Carolina Annual Conference, in session at Elizabeth City, November 17-21, 1938, respectfully asks your consideration of the desirability of fixing an earlier date for holding our Annual Conference, for the following reasons:

1. The date for holding our Conference has for a number of years greatly interfered with our churches and their ministers giving due consideration to the cause of our Orphanage in the observance of Thanksgiving.

2. The earlier marketing conditions prevailing throughout our territory make it highly desirable.

3. The present time for holding our Conference makes it impossible to get the work of the new church year under way until after the Christmas season is over.

In view of the above reasons, we suggest that the date for convening the 1939 session of our Conference be fixed on the Thursday nearest to November 10th.

Respectfully submitted,

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING THE PERSECUTION OF THE JEWS BY THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT

WHEREAS, the universal society of intelligent peoples is compelled to witness today a shameless reversion to unspeakable barbaric cruelty in the terrifying persecution of Jewish people by the German government; and,

WHEREAS, the practice of this unprovoked attack becomes an assault not only upon the Christian spirit of brotherhood, understanding, tolerance, and good will, but also upon the very foundations of civilized life and culture, be it

THEREFORE, resolved: That we unqualifiedly denounce this persecution by the German government upon this great people to whom all humanity is permanently indebted for their priceless contributions to religion and culture;

FURTHER: That we extend to all members of this race of people everywhere our Christian sympathy;

FURTHER: That we offer prayers in their behalf;

FURTHER: That we endorse and foster all movements by the Evian committee, by the British, American and other governments moving for relief and asylum, and that we bespeak for all persecuted Jews, Protestants and Catholics a release from their terror, reaffirming our historic support of all guarantees of racial and religious freedom.

To Jews, with whom we share uncomparably magnificent religious inheritance; to Catholics, with whom we share this and also a faith tremendous; and to persecuted Protestants, of whom we are "one blood and one soul," we extend our Christian affection and express our cherished dream of a universal brotherhood of faith in the capacity of all men to live together progressively in love as understanding sons of the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) R. DWIGHT WARE,
F. S. LOVE,
W. L. CLEGG,
J. M. CULBRETH.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Deeply conscious of the fact that we have been entertained in an unusually fine way, we, the members of the North Carolina Conference, desire to express to our host church and to the people of Elizabeth City our hearty and sincere gratitude for their gracious hospitality. Our stay has been a joy to our hearts. Our prayers are that the blessings of God may abide and abound upon this people.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) H. I. GLASS.

JOHN EDWARD BLALOCK

By W. A. Cade

A devoted husband, a loving father, a true friend, a loyal servant of the Lord and minister of the Gospel! This expresses briefly and truly the life of John Edward Blalock who passed from this earthly life Wednesday morning, May 25, 1938, at his parsonage home in Fairmont, N. C. He was in the midst of the fourth year of a successful pastorate there. He always gave intelligent, efficient and consecrated effort to his ministry.

With high purpose and interest he had participated in the Aldersgate Commemoration of John Wesley's heart warming experience which was observed by the church this year. In company with the writer he attended the church-wide commemoration in Savannah, Ga., early in the year. With great care he directed the cultivation program in his churches. Then on the evening preceding his death he led the Fairmont congregation in the Commemoration service. I think he felt in his own heart something of the experience that John Wesley did two hundred years before at Aldersgate. Early the next morning, after an hour's illness, he went away.

This delineates something of the spiritual quality of this fine life which began when John Blalock was born of God-fearing Methodist parents in Albemarle, N. C., March 20, 1884. From his birth he lived under the holy influence of the Christian faith and the Methodist tradition and spirit. He was converted and joined the church at eleven, felt the call to preach at fifteen, and committed himself definitely to the Christian ministry when twenty years old.

Prepared thus for the Christian ministry by the environmental influence of a Christian home and the country church, Stony Hill, which he always loved, he received collegiate training two and a half years at Trinity College and served the church faithfully for nearly twenty-eight years on the following charges: Yanceyville, 1910-13; Moyock, 1914-15; Milton, 1916-19; Hillsboro, 1920-23; Benson, 1924-27; Parkton, 1928-31; Jonesboro, 1932-34; Fairmont, 1935-38.

At all these places his ministry was a success. He was a good Gospel preacher. He knew and loved both God and men. He had constant communion with God through faith, prayer and the Holy Scriptures. He was a sympathetic and understanding pastor. His ministry was indeed the care of souls. Rarely was there a year when he did not have a goodly ingathering into the membership of the church. With painstaking care he attended to all the interests of the church and promoted its entire program. At the time of his death he was serving effectively as District Missionary Secretary.

The other memorable and happy date in his life was June 1, 1910, when he married Miss Nancy Roberta Lentz of Raeford, N. C. Theirs was a life of happy companionship. To them were born four children who survive to honor his memory and to bless and comfort their mother. They are Katherine (Mrs. John G. Hughes, Jr.), Nancy Wilson, John Edward, Jr., and Anne Eugenia.

Their parsonage home had not the riches of the world; but there were always enough good things to make for health and reasonable comfort. There was always a wealth of affection, tranquility, peace and happiness. The husband and father was responsible for his full share of this which was also generously shared in by the devoted wife and fine children.

The funeral was conducted from the Fairmont Methodist Church Thursday afternoon, May 26, 1938, by his presiding elder, Rev. W. A. Cade, and two long-time personal friends, Revs. T. G. Vickers and B. T. Hurley. Interment was in the Fairmont Cemetery. A large company of his parishioners, neighbors, and friends attended. Among these were twenty of his brother Methodist pastors.

Brother John Blalock will be greatly and sadly missed by his family, his friends and the church. He lived nobly and wrought well, and goes to a well-earned heavenly rest. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors."

ASA JOSEPH PARKER

By H. C. Smith

Rev. Asa Joseph Parker was born in Hertford County, North Carolina, October 6, 1867. He was converted and joined the church while a small boy. He soon felt that he was called to preach and in order that he might be a good minister of Jesus Christ he made great sacrifices to go to school. He first attended a school in Dublin, Indiana, and later attended Randolph Macon College in Ashland, Virginia. On November 13, 1889, he was married to Miss Martha M. Barrow of Hertford County. There were three children, Rev. A. S. Parker, L. B. Parker, and Mrs. R. G. L. Edwards. Besides their own children they were father and mother to Catherine Jones, a little girl whom they took into their home and brought up as their own. Catherine is now Mrs. J. R. Cooke and lives in Rocky Mount. Upon the death of Rev. C. E. Vale, Brother and Sister Parker took his son, Charles E., Jr., and educated him as their own, and he is now a member of our Conference.

Brother Parker joined the North Carolina Conference in 1889. The Conference met that year in Greensboro for the State had not been divided into two Conferences. He was in the active service for forty-three years and served the following charges: 1889, Magnolia Circuit; 1890, Elizabeth Circuit; 1891, Sampson Circuit; 1892, Buckhorn Circuit; 1893-94, Me-herrin Circuit; 1895-96, Williamston and Hamilton; 1897-98, Camden Circuit; 1899-1901, Roper Circuit; 1902-04, Roanoke Island; 1905-06, Wilmington: Bladen Street; 1907-08, Dunn; 1909, Financial Agent, Louisburg College; 1910-12, Durham: West Durham; 1913, Franklinton Circuit; 1914, Wilmington: Fifth Street; 1915, Kenly Circuit; 1916-19, Red Springs; 1920-23, St. John and Gibson; 1924-25, Smithfield; 1926, Elizabeth City: City Road; 1927, Perquimans Circuit; 1928-31, Hillsboro; 1932, Youngsville Circuit. During his service as Financial Agent of Louisburg College he was responsible for raising the money to build the Davis Building. He was Chairman of the Board of Trustees for many years and no member of the Conference was ever more concerned about the future of that college than he was. In the fall of 1932 he superannuated and moved to Raleigh. He never regained his health and after many months of suffering, on August 31st he heard the summons of his Lord, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

Brother Parker's preaching was fearless, uncompromising, and stimulating. His sympathetic, sunny disposition made him an ideal pastor, being always welcomed into the homes of his people. He sang the gospel as well as preached it. He was a member of the original Conference Quartette; the other members being Revs. J. H. Frizzelle, C. E. Vale, and Mr. Robert M. Phillips. This quartette was always in demand to sing for church meetings and one time traveled as far as Seattle, Washington, to sing for a great Epworth League Convention. Some of us shall never forget how they used to stir our hearts when they were called on to sing for the Annual Conference. The other three members of the quartette preceded Brother Parker to the other side. We remember how they used to sing:

“Angels of Jesus, Angels of Light,
Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night.”

We believe they are with the angels now to welcome home those of us who are still pilgrims of the night.

Funeral services were held in Central Methodist Church, Raleigh, during the afternoon of September 2, by Revs. J. H. Barnhardt, E. C. Few, E. G. Overton, and Leon Russell. His body was laid to rest in the beautiful Oaklawn Cemetery. We shall miss his face, but the memory of his sunny, self-sacrificing life will live on with us until we meet him over there.

CHARLES MARTYR HAWKINS

By Marvin Y. Self

“So live that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go . . . sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.”

Such was the life and death of Charles Martyr Hawkins.

I shall never forget the morning when he came to my home in Laurinburg and said, “My doctor has given me a thorough examination, and has told me that the end might come at any time—that I might go to sleep at night and not awaken in the morning.” Then Dr. Hawkins calmly added, “If it is so, it will be all right. When you hear it, come down and hold a little service.” Conscious that the end might come in the quiet watches of the morning, he was unafraid and could go to the repose of the night prepared to sleep a blessed sleep. Death held no venomous sting for him. The heavenly land was very near and he was ready to enter into the glories about which he had preached and sung through his long years of great usefulness.

Charles Martyr Hawkins was born at Glasgow, Missouri. He was the son of a newspaper publisher, Oscar D. Hawkins, and Frances Martyr Hawkins, Richmond, Missouri. He joined the Southwest Missouri Conference at Marshall in 1880. At this Conference he was appointed junior preacher on the Pleasant Hill Circuit. After nine months he was appointed to fill a vacancy at Washington Street, Kansas City, where he remained four years and three months. He then served the following charges, remaining four years at each, excepting the last named: Boonville, Independence, Kansas City, Central Church, Kansas City, and Troost Avenue, Kansas City.

In 1898 Dr. Hawkins transferred to the Baltimore Conference, and served four years each at Trinity, Baltimore, and Green Memorial, Roanoke, Va. In 1905 he transferred to the St. Louis Conference and was stationed at Cabanne, St. Louis. After serving four years at Cabanne, and two years at Lafayette Park, St. Louis, he was appointed presiding elder of the St. Louis District and served three years. He then served the following charges in Missouri: Charleston, three years; Jackson, one year; Springfield, five years; and Muskogee, Oklahoma, one year. In 1924 he transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and served Rockingham four years, and Laurinburg three years. At the Conference of 1931 he took the superannuate relation, and returned to Laurinburg to spend the evening time of life.

In every year of his ministry there were revivals and conversions and many accessions. In the fifty-one years of his pastorates he received into the church 6,016, and a like number came into other churches as a result of his evangelistic preaching for other pastors. He never doubted the efficacy of the Gospel. At the end of his useful life his faith was as vital and bright as in the high moments on his long ministry. By association with Dr. Hawkins one discovered that he was an unusual man. His scholarship, his clear faith and deep spirituality, his certainty that he was a commissioned man of God, his determination to achieve as minister and scholar, and his genius for friendship made him a man of rare quality.

In 1883 Charles Martyr Hawkins was married to Miss Mary A. Mathews, daughter of a widely known Methodist preacher, Reverend John Mathews, D.D., and Mrs. Mathews. Four children blessed this union: John Mathews Hawkins, St. Louis; Reverend Robert Martyr Hawkins, of Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.; Phala, the wife of Reverend F. S. Love, of the North Carolina Conference; and Reverend Oscar Meneff Hawkins, a member of the North Georgia Conference.

On Wednesday evening, August 31, 1938, at his home in Laurinburg, N. C., Dr. Hawkins peacefully passed to his reward. Funeral services were conducted in the Laurinburg Methodist Church at three o'clock on Friday, September 2nd. The pastor, Reverend H. L. Hendricks, was in charge of the service and was assisted by the following Methodist ministers: J. F. Herbert, Rockingham; J. D. Bundy, Fayetteville; J. G. Johnson, Laurinburg; W. A. Cade, Wilmington; and M. Y. Self, Durham.

The hymns used at the service were favorites of Dr. Hawkins: "Servant of God, Well Done"; "Gathering Home"; and "Children of the Heavenly King."

The body was tenderly laid to rest in the burial plot in Hillside Cemetery at Laurinburg. Esteem and love for Dr. Hawkins were expressed in many and beautiful floral tributes.

The following tribute to Dr. Hawkins appeared in the Bulletin of the Laurinburg Merchants' Association, September 5, 1938:

"A friend of Dr. Hawkins some years ago sent him a Christmas greeting in which he said, 'When I stop to count the many blessings that have come into my life, I count your friendship one of the choicest of these blessings.'

"This statement might well be made by the community, for Dr. Hawkins was a community blessing. Wherever he went there was a breath of social and spiritual enrichment flowing into the lives of all, privileged and underprivileged, rich and poor alike, with whom he came in contact.

"Laurinburg loved Dr. Hawkins and all Laurinburg will miss his jovial, friendly, and God-like personality." And they will cherish tender memories of him as will all those whose life he enriched by his touch along the way of his earthly career.

It is in my heart to give an expression of gratitude for the lovable, brotherly, and helpful spirit I found him to be during the five years of my intimate association with him. Blessed is his memory.

JAMES HENRY FRIZZELLE

By O. L. Hathaway

James Henry Frizzelle, the son of Henry Steele Frizzelle and Margaret Willey Frizzelle, was born at Fayetteville, North Carolina, May 8, 1865. His mother died when he was six weeks old and he was taken into the home of his Uncle William Wemyss at Clinton, North Carolina. In this home he grew to early manhood. On August 7, 1938, in Wilmington, North Carolina, he was knocked down by an automobile as he attempted to cross the street. He was rushed to Walker Memorial Hospital but attempts to save his life failed and he died the following day. His funeral was conducted from the Fifth Avenue Methodist Church by the Rev. W. A. Cade, presiding elder of the Wilmington District, and assisted by the writer. His body was placed in the beautiful Oakdale Cemetery, Wilmington, North Carolina.

Brother Frizzelle received his education in the schools at Clinton and Fayetteville, North Carolina. His desire to learn followed him through his long years of service. He loved books; the old and the new found a place in his study and his most welcome gifts were good books.

In his early days he learned to be a cabinet maker and followed this trade until he accepted the call of God to become a minister. He was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Goldsboro, North Carolina, in 1892. He was ordained deacon in 1894 and elder in 1896. He received the superannuate relation at the Rocky Mount Conference in 1932. He spent the rest of his days in useful service in and around the city of Wilmington, North Carolina.

Brother Frizzelle was married twice: first to Miss Annie Jackson Person in 1884, who died in 1919; and on July 14, 1920, he married Miss Penelope Carter, who died November 5, 1937. There were no children born to either union.

Brother Frizzelle will be remembered for his love of music, interest in young people's work, and abiding convictions. He was devoted to the people that he served and tried to enrich their lives. He loved the young ministers of his church and was truly an inspiration to them. The good work that he did lives behind him in the lives of those who were able to see the Master through him. There were many prayers that went up in his behalf and many more have followed as an expression of love and thanksgiving for a servant of Jesus Christ.

MRS. J. W. POTTER

By Robert W. Bradshaw

Mrs. J. W. Potter passed away at her home in Raleigh on Saturday, April 9, 1938, and was buried in Oakdale Cemetery in Wilmington on Sunday afternoon following.

Mrs. Potter was born August 1, 1860, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Christopher L. Grafflin. The family moved from Baltimore, Maryland, to Wilmington, when she was eleven years old, and her family is vitally connected with the Methodist movement in Wilmington. Her first husband, Robert H. Beery, was an active and saintly Methodist who served in many official capacities in the church. Mr. and Mrs. Beery were charter members of the old Market Street Church in Wilmington and were influential in its development and growth into Trinity Church.

In the beginning of this century the Reverend J. W. Potter went to serve as pastor of Market Street Church. There his warmest friends and supporters were the Beerys. Soon Mr. Beery was taken home. After a few years Mrs. Beery was married to Mr. Potter on February 27, 1909.

In writing of a pastor who has served faithfully and well a number of charges during his ministry, it is customary to recall the names of these charges. So close to Brother Potter was his good wife in carrying on the work in each pastorate that it is only fitting to record that she "served" at Edenton (two years), Roper Circuit (four years), Jenkins Memorial (four years), St. John, Goldsboro (five years), Clark Street, Rocky Mount (four years), and South Rocky Mount (one year).

At the end of this service, Brother and Sister Potter superannuated. Friends in every place in which they had served, earnestly begged them to establish a home in their respective communities. But, true to that which had guided them in all their work for Christ, a sincere desire to serve, these two saints of earth looked about for the place in which they thought they might be of the most service and cast their lot with the Jenkins Memorial Church community in Raleigh. There they continued their ministry together—a blessing to the church and to all people in the neighborhood.

One would not attempt magnificent praise of Mrs. Potter. It would be out of keeping with the sincere humility that permeated her whole life. One can truly say that she loved God—and loved people; she believed in God—and believed in people; she served God—by serving people. God, and "others," were the passion of her life. When one's life has earned this tribute, it is a successful life. By that measure, hers was truly successful.

MRS. F. B. NOBLITT

By H. C. Smith

Lucy Jane Russell Noblitt, wife of Rev. F. B. Noblitt, was born in Montgomery County, North Carolina, February 18, 1891, and died in Marion, North Carolina, October 19, 1938. She was the daughter of J. H. and Eliza Ellen Russell and a sister of Rev. J. A. Russell of our Conference. She was brought up in a home where God and His church came first, and it was natural that she should have joined the church early in life. As a young woman she was active in the Sunday school and other church work. On January 1, 1925, she married Rev. F. B. Noblitt. It was my privilege, as their presiding elder, to visit in their home a great many times while they were serving the Lumberton Circuit. I have never seen a more devoted, faithful, unassuming preacher's wife. She literally lived for her husband and her son, Hugh Russell. Brother Noblitt served the so-called hard charges, but to Sister Noblitt it was the Lord's work and the people were His people. She thought their charges were as important as anyone's, and they of course were. We all know something of the sham and unreality of life, how men make false distinctions, and have such little understanding of what is vital. How refreshing it is to meet a pure, unpretentious soul like this good woman was! A character such as hers is like the lily of the field, blooming without thought of praise and yet more beautiful than Solomon in all his glory.

For more than a year before Mrs. Noblitt went away she was never free of pain. She suffered two major operations in an effort to get relief, but she grew weaker instead of better until the end came. I visited her when she was a patient at Duke Hospital, as much for what she did for me as for any good I could do her. Such cheerful, uncomplaining patience while enduring the pains of an incurable disease one seldom sees. Even in her suffering she gave courage to other patients nearby.

Rev. Mr. Wood, pastor of the M. E. Church at Marion, conducted the funeral and her body was laid to rest among the hills in the beautiful cemetery there. May the benediction of her spirit rest upon her husband and their son.

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

MRS. R. F. TAYLOR

By John R. Poe

Tuesday morning, September 13, 1938, at about 10 o'clock, Mrs. Lucy Hamilton Taylor slipped quietly away. She had been ill for some time; but we were not prepared for her going. She had been so cheerful in her sickness, and had borne her suffering so well, her passing was a distinct shock to her many friends.

Mrs. Taylor was born October 25, 1875, near Cloverdale, Virginia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Linkenhoger. Her childhood was spent upon her parent's farm. Mrs. Taylor was first married to Mr. J. W. Hamilton, a successful merchant of Cloverdale. After Mr. Hamilton's death she continued to live in Cloverdale until December, 1931, when she was married to Rev. R. F. Taylor. Brother Taylor was pastor of the Aulander Charge, and they made their home in the parsonage in Aulander for the remainder of the Conference year. In 1932 Brother Taylor superannuated. They bought a home in Aulander and lived here until Brother Taylor was called out of retirement in December, 1935, to serve the Ocracoke Charge.

While serving the Ocracoke Charge, Brother Taylor was called away from his labors to an eternal rest, and Mrs. Taylor came back to Aulander to live. She was active in the religious and civic life of the community. She retained her membership in the Aulander Methodist Church, and took an active part in the church program. She will be sorely missed by all of us who try to make this world a better place in which to live. Her body was taken to Troutman, Virginia. Interment was in the family cemetery.

"It singeth low in every heart, we hear it each and all;

A song of those who answer not, however we may call.

They throng the silence of the breast; we see them as of yore,

The kind, the true, the brave, the sweet, who walk with us no more."

MRS. C. M. HAWKINS

By H. L. Hendricks

Mrs. Mary Agnes Hawkins, wife of Dr. C. M. Hawkins, was born in Alabama in the year 1865. She was the daughter of Dr. John and Mary A. Mathews. Her father was an outstanding Methodist minister and during his many years of service in the ministry he served faithfully and well some of the largest churches in the Southern states.

In 1883 she was united in marriage to Dr. C. M. Hawkins of the Missouri Conference. To this union were born four children: Dr. Robert M. Hawkins, who is professor of Greek and Hebrew at Vanderbilt University; Rev. Oscar M. Hawkins, a member of the North Georgia Conference; Mrs. F. S. Love, of Wilmington; and John M. Hawkins, of St. Louis, Missouri.

Mrs. Hawkins was first of all a devoted and understanding wife and mother; this is evidenced by the outstanding Christian character and accomplishments of her children. All of her life was spent in a parsonage and her fine talents given to the church.

In a brief memorial, of a life so rich and full, many things will have to be omitted, though mention must be made of Mrs. Hawkins' faithful and efficient services as President of the St. Louis Conference Women's Missionary Society, which office she held for six years. She performed the duties of this position with ability. She loved her church and all its phases of work, having served in many capacities. Mrs. Hawkins was a noble character and possessed of Christian fortitude, which sustained her in those last days, and on June 18, 1938, she passed to that "house of many mansions."

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor at the Laurinburg Methodist Church. Her body was laid to rest in Hillside Cemetery at Laurinburg.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in May, 1836, and in 1850, and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, except that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining North Carolina territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the North Carolina Conference.
